Mrs. J. C. Floyd took first prize for her fried chicken and Mrs. Al Chase won second prize with a salad.

It was unanimously voted to have another dinner Aug. 9, to which members are to bring their husbands or guests.

"It is strongly recommended," said Mrs. Comer, "that the entree, salad or dessert each member is to bring should be made from one of the recipes in the recent edition of The Chico Enterprise-Record's Cookbook."

District directors are looking into a better burglar alarm system for the district's shop at the Hooker Oak Recreation Complex.

William Kent, CARD general manager, told the directors at last night's monthly meeting that the shop has been burgled twice this year — "wiping out the tool supply completely."

He suggested the wiring of the entry door and two sliding doors at a cost of $377. The wiring would be connected to a loud horn which would be heard for several blocks.

Chairman Eddie Booth asked Kent if the wiring would be connected to the police station. Kent explained that it would not, but that "the neighbors would be alerted to listen for the horn."

"Was the alarm system your idea or did some salesman bring it to your attention?" Director Matthew Marsh asked.

"It was my idea... if we don't do something, our insurance will be increased or canceled... and we are operating without tools now," Kent said.

Kent also suggested that a better outside light, metal door and improved locks be installed.

Directors decided to inquire about entry-proof methods from the insurance company.
