For our May meeting we met at the Elks for a very delicious lunch. It was a very enjoyable afternoon.

There were gifts from secret pals for Mother's day and birthday.

It was decided that we invite Tri-Chem instructor Mary Johnson to our June meeting at the park. She is to be invited to join in our pot-luck and afterward give a demonstration. Patti is to give her a call to settle all of the details.

Prior to our meeting we ~~enjoyed~~ enjoyed a pot luck and art-chem class given by instructor Mary Johnson. We painted small butterfly magnets in sun-glo paints. It was a lot of fun.

We did have a surprise guest during the pot luck. It was Richard Arney. It seems Ginger forgot to put a fork in his lunch for the cobbler she made. The food was great.

December 20, 1984

Our first formal meeting this winter was held at Evelyn's lovely home on Stanford Lane.

Attending were: Vi, Shawna, Alice, Ginger, Betty, Pearl, Agnes and Opal. Since we "lost" Patti this fall to McCloud, Betty was recruited to take minutes. Also we welcomed June Shields and hope she will come again.

After some wonderful brownies with cherry filling and coffee the meeting was called to order. Alice also passed around a can of Macadamian nuts for all to share.

Ginger gave treasurer's report of:

Checking Account	- 39.20
Savings Account	- 126.90
Cash on hand	- 4.63
Penny Can	- 2.88

Ginger advised we would have interest on savings account in January. She also paid Alice $6.00 for Christmas items.

There was no old business.

It was decided to send cards to Grandma McRair and Lilly Hook.

Evelyn gave a reading from the I.V. Guide regarding peace and harmony in our holiday message. Pearl also asked her to read a message from "Footprints". Much food for thought this season.

Vi moved to adjourn and Ginger seconded. Pearl objected as we had not chosen next meeting place. This was duly chosen by Violet for January 10th @ 1:30 pm and requested someone remind her. Pearl requested Feb. meeting - day and time to be announced in January.

Adjournment again moved and seconded, passed. Gifts were handed out and all wished each other the best for the holidays and the new year.
