Minutes of the Meetings.

The first meeting of the Colony ladies was held on Friday afternoon May 8. This meeting was called by Mrs Cheaney for the purpose of organizing a Colony Land Owners' Club.

Thirty five ladies were present and signified their desire to sponsor such a club, by signing the membership list.

Mrs Cheaney was elected temporary chairman.

The club was declared to be strictly social in nature.

Agnes Pearce, Sec.

Meeting of May 18. 1934.

A special meeting was called by the Temporary Chairman, Mrs Cheaney on Wednesday afternoon May 18, for the purpose of completing plans for the Colony Land Owners Social Club.

There were twenty five ladies present.

Mrs Cheaney called the meeting to order and briefly explained the objectives of the club to the new members present.

A motion was carried to have a committee appointed to draw up the necessary By-Laws for the club. Mrs Cheaney named the following Ladies to act on the committee, Mesdames Ellen Baxter, Myrtle Curtis, Daisy Dicks, Evelyn Merrifield, and Mattie Pearl.

The chairman asked for suggestions for the name of the club. Several were given and a standing vote taken. The Sunrise Social Club was received the largest number of votes, therefore, by such, will the club be called.

A discussion followed as to the time for electing the officers. A decision was reached to take action at the present meeting.

A motion was made and carried to open nominations for President.

Mrs Cheaney and Mrs Pearl were nominated. Mrs Pearl declined the nomination, which was accepted, and Mrs Cheaney was unanimously elected.

Mrs Pearl was nominated and elected Vice President, Miss Evelyn Merrifield the office of treasury and Mrs Lloyd Pearce Secretary.

The Hostess Committee for the next meeting was appointed from the list of members in their order of their signatures. Mrs Christensen, Mrs Jens Nelson, Mrs Noordhoff, Mrs Pray and Mrs McRae.

The Ladies of the club were asked by the president to assist in decorating the Park platform for the Community picnic. Mrs Cheaney was appointed Chairman, and others volunteered flowers and greenery.

The meeting was adjourned by the president at four o'clock and the ladies of the Hostess Committee, Mrs Pearl, Davis, Lucas, Pearce, and Curtis served refreshments.
Agnes Pearce, Sec.

Meeting of June First 1934

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs Cheaney at two o'clock at the Club House.

The minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary and approved after one correction in the by-laws, as drawn up by the committee. The correction shall read that membership in the club shall consist of all Colony land owners, with renters as associate members.

The president gave a vote of thanks to the ladies who helped her decorate the platform, for the annual community picnic.

The secretary read the names of those to serve on the Hostess Committee for the July meeting. Mrs R. W. Seager chairman, Mrs Ed. Rice, Mrs Gardner, Mrs Rose Compton and Mrs Dite.

There being no more business, the meeting was adjourned and Mrs Axel Anderson from Cordova, Alaska was introduced, and she gave a most interesting, informal talk on Alaska. She exhibited many native trinkets and answered various questions for the ladies.

The meeting was then turned over to the hostess committee and ice tea and cookies were served to the twenty seven members present.

Agnes Pearl, Sec.

Meeting of July 6, 1934.

The clubhouse being unavailable for the July meeting due to conflicting dates with the Durham Cold Storage Committee meeting, Mrs Cheaney invited the ladies to meet ~~at~~ her lawn.

The hostess committee arranged chairs and benches under the trees and the setting was lovely. The flowers and decorations carried out the Fourth of July color scheme.

The president, Mrs Cheaney, called the meeting to order. There was no unfinished or old business brought up. A motion was made to hear ~~any~~ new business. A discussion followed, but no definite business was transacted.

The treasurer gave her report and there was nine dollars and fifty cents in the treasury.

The business meeting was adjourned and a social hour enjoyed by the large number of ladies present.

Just prior to the closing of the business session the Hostess Committee for the next meeting was appointed by the secretary Mrs Cloyd Pearce. Those appointed to serve were; Mrs J. E. Merrifield, Mrs E. H. Nelson, Mrs C. P. Kendall, Mrs G. W. McHair and Miss Evelyn Merrifield.

Mrs Cheaney invited the ladies to meet on her lawn for the next meeting and a standing vote was taken to determine the pleasure of the club. All agreed to have their next meeting there.

The business meeting was adjourned and turned over to the Hostess Committee who were all present. Mrs Seager, Mrs Kite, Mrs Gardner, Mrs Vice and Mrs Rose Compton served dainty refreshments.

Agnes Pearce, Sec.

Meeting of August 3, 1934.

The meeting was called to order by the president Mrs Cheaney.

The ladies took their seats arranged in a circle around the lawn at Mrs Cheaney's home.

The president called for the reading of the minutes and they stood approved as read. The roll call followed and seventeen members were present. There was no report from the treasurer as she was absent. There was no old or new business brought up, so the hostess committee was appointed for the next meeting by the secretary.

Mrs Butler, Chairman, Mrs Unger, Mrs Beach, Mrs Hicks and Mrs Baxter were appointed for the September Hostess Committee.

The business meeting was adjourned and the ladies were served doughnuts and coffee by the Hostess Committee, during the social hour that followed.

The secretary gave a report of thirteen dollars and fifty cents in the treasury.

A motion was made by Mrs Seager to have the clubhouse cleaned. The motion carried and a general discussion followed.

Mrs Cheaney appointed a committee to appear before the Water Committee and ask them to cooperate in having the place hosed and cleaned.

Mrs Seager acted as chairman and Mrs Pearce was asked to go with her. Mrs Pearce declined due to stress of other business and Mrs Vice was appointed.

The ladies of the club agreed to launder the curtains.

Mrs Davis made a motion that all the ladies bring magazines to the next meeting and have a magazine exchange. The motion carried and the ladies agreed to bring magazines and look through them, exchange them or take clippings from them and then send them to the C.C.C. Headquarters in Chic for distribution.

A motion was made to have a club Christmas tree for the members and their families. The motion was seconded and further plans were to be made at the next meeting.

The hostess committee was appointed for the next meeting and the president declared the meeting adjourned.

Agnes Pearce, Sec

Meeting of November 2nd 1934

The meeting was called to order by the president Mrs Cheaney at two o'clock at the clubhouse.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The discussion of old business followed and Mrs Geo. Rice reported on the clubhouse cleanup committee. No definite action had been taken by the water committee and the matter was tabled until further information was gathered.

The question as to whether everyone wanted a Xmas tree arose. A vote was taken and it was unanimously decided to have one.

Mrs John Henderson made a motion to buy the tree out of the club funds and it was seconded. Mrs Pearce and Mrs Merifield were selected to purchase the tree.

A discussion followed regarding the nature of the party to be held. It was voted to have a tree and have presents not costing more than ten or fifteen cents for the men. Mrs Bernard Henderson made a motion to have a josh tree and it carried. Mrs Pearl made a motion to just have presents for the men and children and it was seconded.

Mrs John Henderson made a motion to have a can of candy for the children to be tied in netting bags. Mrs Cheaney appointed Mrs Henderson to buy the candy and the expense to be divided amongst the members.

Mrs Rose Compton was chosen to buy the netting - red and green, for the candy bags and to make the bags.

Mrs Hicks and Mrs John Lincub volunteered to make popcorn balls or string popcorn.

The president asked for those who had decorations and were willing to let the club use them to bring them. Mrs Davis, Mrs Compton and Mrs Crandall volunteered to bring tree lights.

Mrs Pearce made a motion that Mrs Bernard Henderson be appointed Chairman of the decoration committee, to decorate the tree and hall. The motion carried and she was given power to choose her own committee.

Mrs Pearl was appointed program chairman.

Mrs Curtis was appointed Chairman of the apples and oranges committee and instructed to purchase the kind and amount desired.

Mrs Pearl was appointed to investigate the community calendar and set a definite date for the party. December eighteenth was voted the best date if available and taken as the tentative time.

Mrs John Henderson made a motion that each member bring one present and the extra ones be purchased by the club funds.

The Xmas party discussion was tabled until the next meeting and the Hostess Committee for the following meeting was appointed, Mrs Bernard Henderson chairman, Mrs Sarah Compton, Mrs Cheaney, Mrs Miguel and Mrs Rollins.

The meeting was adjourned and the hostess committee Mrs Davis, Mrs Dill, Mrs W. D. Henderson, Mrs Crandall and Mrs Anna E. Kendall served delicious refreshments of pumpkin pie and cookies and coffee.

A discussion during the social hour of the possibility of fixing the club rooms for the club arose and the president called a short business meeting and Mrs Pearl and Mrs Hubbs were appointed to appear before the water committee and start action on the matter.

Sunrise Social Club
Plans Christmas Party

DURHAM—The November meeting of the Sunrise Social club at Mead club house yesterday afternoon was a delightful occasion for more than 25 members who were in attendance. Autumn vines and flowers of many kinds were used for decoration of the hall about the fireplace, which was banked with pyracantha berries and colorful pumpkins, etc., suggestive of the season.

Mrs. C. F. Cheaney presided and Mrs. Cloyd Pearce, secretary, read the minutes for the past two meetings. Mrs. George Vice gave a report from the water company committee relative to the clubhouse and Mrs. George Pearl and Mrs. Ed Hubbs were appointed on the clubroom committee.

The main plans of the day centered around the old-fashioned Christmas party, which will be given for members, their husbands and families. The following committee chairmen were appointed to complete arrangements:

Christmas tree, Mrs. Cloyd Pearce and Miss Evelyn Merrifield; decoration of clubhouse and tree, Mrs. Bernard Henderson; popcorn strings for tree, Mrs. J. L. Lucas and Mrs. H. H. Dicks; candy bags, Mrs. L. H. Compton; candy, Mrs. John Henderson; program, Mrs. George Peaarl.

Final plans will be made at the club meeting the first Friday in December. Women who are eligible to join the club and have not yet signed the roll or paid their membership dues of 50 cents for the year, are urged to do so at the December meeting, so that they and their families may be included in the holiday festivity.

Santa Claus will be scheduled to make his appearance at the clubhouse to distribute the presents, which will be placed on the tree for the husbands and children. Each member is to bring an inexpensive gift suitable for a man and the gifts will be numbered.

Mesdames George Dill, J. T. Davis, W. D. Henderson, D. C. Crandall and Anna E. Kendall were hostesses for yesterday's meeting and had a long table artistically arranged with beautiful roses in the center and chrysanthemums at either end. Yellow and lavender predominating in the colors. Pumpkin pie, cookies and coffee were the delicious refreshments served.

Patchwork Quilt Talk Given at Sunrise Club

DURHAM—The February meeting of the Sunrise club at Mead clubhouse yesterday afternoon was featured by an interesting talk on "Patchwork Quilts and the Women Who Made Them" by Mrs. W. D. Henderson, who read sketches from the book and told bits of history about many patterns which are known by different names in different parts of the country. Several choice quilts and quilt tops were also displayed, including two which Mrs. C. F. Cheaney brought home from Kentucky with her.

Mrs. Cheaney, presided at the business session during which Ralph Baxter explained proposed plans for razing of the clubhouse and rebuilding in the community park, and asked the president to attend an advisory board meeting in the evening.

Mrs. Everett Crawford (nee Merrifield) tendered her resignation as treasurer since her new home is in Oroville. It was voted to combine the office of secretary and treasurer and Mrs. Cloyd Pearce took over the treasurer's duties.

At the close of the program Mrs. Crawford was presented with a bouquet of white and yellow blossoms, narcissus, freesias, and calendulas and ferns as a farewell compliment.

There was a record attendance at the meeting yesterday and all enjoyed visiting and refreshments at the 4 o'clock. The hostesses, Mesdames Cheaney, Parker, McClure, Cole and McNabb had the long table attractively decorated with china lilies and the officers' table was centered with winter iris and stocks.

Eastside Social Club Is New Name Chosen

DURHAM—The Eastside Social club is the new name chosen by the former Sunrise Social club at its meeting yesterday. Mrs. George Pearl presided, with Mrs. Joseph Drobny, secretary, at the meeting which was held on the shaded lawn at the home of Mrs. C. F. Cheaney. Following routine and special business, Miss Katherine Butler, vice president, named Mrs. George McNair for the hobby program for the September meeting and presented Mrs. Howard Sohner for the hobby leader for the afternoon.

Mrs. Sohner chose household hints, asking each one to contribute helpful suggestions. Clever readings by Mrs. Sohner and Mrs. Pearl concluded the half-hour program.

At the refreshment time, all were seated at a long table for lemon cream pies, coffee and iced tea. Mesdames B. F. Kendall, John Henderson, Alfred Skillin and D. C. Crandall were hostesses for the afternoon. Mrs. Agnes Craig of San Francisco, sister of Mrs. M. Drennan, was a special guest of the afternoon.

Vote of Thanks Given by Sunrise Club to Helpers

DURHAM—The Sunrise club met in its cozy new club room yesterday afternoon and was elated with its new quarters in the east wing of the Mead club house. A vote of thanks was given to the water company and all the husbands who helped with the remodeling and to the club committee. Mrs. George Pearl, Mrs. Ed. Hubbs, Mrs. Cloyd Pearce, who had charge of planning and arranging the club room. Also to Mrs. C. F. Cheaney for a cash donation and the materials for draperies.

Mrs. Cheaney, president, was welcomed back at the New Year meeting, at which the vice president, Mrs. Pearl, presided. Reports of the Christmas party committee were heard and approved.

Mrs. John Henderson called on Mrs. Cheaney for an interesting review of her trip to Kentucky with her husband to visit her 91 year old father and his 84 year old mother. While there Cheaney was honored at a birthday party with a large family reunion. On their return trip they saw the south in holiday attire—streets canopied with streamers and lights and jammed with holiday shoppers and merry makers. Her niece, Miss Katherine Butler who, with her brother, returned with them, was also welcomed at yesterday's meeting, as were two new members, Mrs. H. B. Ashworth and Mrs. S. Lassell.

Humorous readings completed the program, which was followed by a tea hour. Mrs. F. C. Frederick, Mrs. Henderson, Mrs. H. Sohner and Mrs. Skillin, the hostesses, had a long table with white fleur de lis cloth and centerpiece of calendula which matched the yellow drapes at the north windows. The room was also decorated with holly branches and mistletoe and red tapers in holly holders.

A bouquet of little red chrysanthemums was presented to Mrs. Cheaney for a New Year greeting from the club.

Mrs. W. B. Henderson was appointed entertainment chairman for the February meeting and Mesdames Cheaney, F. McNabb, W. W. McClure, F. Parker and Lyman Cole were named hostesses. Mrs. Sohner and Mrs. Skillin were named on a committee to purchase cups for the club room property before the next meeting.

The president complimented the club and especially the club room committee on what had been accomplished during the past month and thanked all members for their cooperation.

Sunrise Club Has Friendship Program

DURHAM—The June meeting of the Sunrise Social club was well attended Friday afternoon in the club room at Meade club house. Mrs. George Pearl presided at the business meeting, during which interesting plans for the year were discussed. Mrs. J. Drobny, new secretary-treasurer, also assumed her duties, as did the vice president, Miss Katherine Butler.

Mrs. J. L. Lucas had charge of the hobby program, which was based on "Friendship," and she read a series of beautiful verses on the theme which she has collected. Delicious iced tea and cakes were served by the hostess committee, Mesdames Ellen Baxter, J. E. Merrifield, George McNair and J. L. Lucas, who had a pretty table arranged with cut flowers.
