Eastside Club Makes Quilts for Red Cross

DURHAM—Fifteen members of the Eastside Social Club met yesterday afternoon in the clubroom for the handcraft work which now is the making of a wool quilt for the Red Cross. The women brought their pieces to the club and some cut out the square blocks while others sewed. The quilt blocks will be finished at the next meeting in two weeks. Mrs. R. H. McNair also donated a wool quilt top.

Mrs. W. S. Hook and Mrs. R. S. Green, president, and vice president directed the work and Mrs. J. Shumate made the coffee for the refreshment hour.

Eastside Club Has Patriotic Program

DURHAM—The Eastside Social club was attended by 24 yesterday when February birthdays of the nation's honored men were emphasized by their pictures, red, white and blue decorations, and a patriotic play.

Mrs. R. S. Green, vice president, conducted the business meeting in the absence of the president, Mrs. W. S. Hook, who was ill.

It was decided to start a wool quilt at the handcraft meeting February 17 and Mrs. Green was asked to see about donating it to the Red Cross on British relief.

Mrs. F. M. Butler, program chairman, first presented Mrs. Joseph Davis, who gave a splendid review of "Miss Lula Bett," by Zona Gale.

"The Truth Goes Marching On" was the name of the playlet given by Mrs. Green, Mrs. John Parker, Mrs. Charles Noordhoff, Mrs. D. C. Crandall and Misses Barbara Jean Tupper and Constance Noordhoff. The singing of patriotic songs and the pledge to the flag concluded the program.

A social tea hour was enjoyed with Mrs. Charles Tvedik and Mrs. M. Drennan as hostesses.

Feb. 7. 1941.

The Eastside social club met in the club room, with 24 ladies present, the room was pretty with colorful pictures patriotic and otherwise Mrs Green presided owing to the absence of our President Mrs Hook through illness

After the minutes were read and no immediate business we discussed making a wool quilt and donating it to the red cross, and Mrs Green was asked to get the necessary information from head quarters so we could start on it at the handicraft meeting.

Mrs ^{program chairman} M. Butler introduced Mrs Davis who gave a splendid review of Miss Lula Bett. by Yona Gale.

An interesting playlet by Mrs Green Parker "Woodhuff and Grandall" was very good. America the beautiful was sung by Constance Woodhuff, and Barbara Jean Lupper. Pledge to the flag concluded the meeting Mrs Green and Mrs Butler were named as hostesses for March, the social tea was enjoyed by all.
