Eastside Club Fetes Yuletide At Social Meeting

The Eastside Social Club enjoyed a pre-holiday meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. D. Henderson with Mrs. D. C. Crandall, and Mrs. Charles Tyrdik as co-hostesses. Only one thing marred the afternoon—that was that the president, Mrs. Guy Henson, was ill in bed at her home, so a basket of beautiful chrysanthemums and a cheerful card was sent to her. Also a surprise birthday card was given to a past president, Mrs. Adele Lucas.

Mrs. W. Varnes presided with Mrs. Kay Tupper, secretary. There was an excellent attendance and six new members signed the roll for the year.

The Henderson home was arranged with artistic motifs of the season from the art department of the Durham Union High School where Mrs. William Stephens is director. On the library table was a scene of the wisemen journeying to Bethlehem and on the buffet table was the manger scene, while Christmas cards, etc., were also displayed. On the piano was a silvered ensemble of evergreens, seed-pods, colored balls and candles made for Camp Fire girls sale under the direction of Mrs. Crandall.

An impressive program was arranged by Mrs. Henderson as follows:

Christmas Story — Luke 2:1-20 read by Mrs. John Jaquith.

Prayer by Grace Noll Crowell read by Mrs. Tyrdik.

The Little Lord Jesus by Emma Lauritz Larson, read by Mrs. Boyd Pearce.

The mother's gift, read by Mrs. Irer.

Dicken's Christmas Carol as observed in England, read from Reader's Digest by Mrs. Kay Tupper.

Guessing game—What's on the Christmas trees, conducted by Mrs. Varnes and won by Mrs. John Jaquith.

Mrs. R. H. McNair was the good Nicholas, who distributed the packages from the decorated tree, assisted by Master Charles Casey.

Green trays were daintily arranged with chicken sandwiches and coffee for the tea hour.

Those present were Mrs. Parker and Mrs. Charles

Thoff of Chico, former member

Mrs. A. Durante, Alfred

and Mayfield Boone and Swanson of San Francisco, of Mrs. Tupper.

A birthday card signed by all present was presented to Mrs Lucas and all joined in singing "Happy Birthday". A large basket of Chrysanthemums from Mrs Cranball's garden was sent to Mrs Benson, with a card signed by all present.

A motion was made by Mrs Pearce that hostesses choose their own Co-hostesses. seconded and passed.

A motion was made that the Secty send a note of Thanks to Mrs Stevens for sending us the art work of her class to our meeting for us to see.

It was decided to drop the mid-monthly meeting since the date fell too near Christmas.

No further business at hand, the meeting adjourned and was turned over to the entertainment Committee.

A beautiful program of readings of Christmas stories and poetry was given, also a lively guessing game in which all joined, then Santa Claus impersonated by Mrs McNair distributed the gifts. There was an attendance of 19, 3 of whom were guests, Mrs Boone, Mrs Nordhoff and Mrs Swanson, and all agreed they had a most enjoyable time.

Eastside Club Elects Officers At Luncheon

A delectable turkey luncheon with many choice dishes in addition to the piece de resistance was enjoyed by twenty members of the Eastside Social Club at its annual meeting which was held yesterday in the I.O.O.F. social hall in Durham. A long table was arranged with white cover cloths, garden flowers and the delicacies brought by the members. The president, Mrs. Guy Henson had the turkey baked in her electric roaster, with dressing made by Mrs. Adele Lucas and Mrs. R. H. McNair.

The annual election of new officers took place in early afternoon, following nominations from the floor. Mrs. W. E. Varnes was chosen president; Mrs. William Hook, vice president; Mrs. Elmo Jacks, secretary-treasurer and Mrs. W. D. Henderson, auditor.

The by-laws were read by the secretary, Mrs. Kay Tupper and were amended by a motion to meet the third Friday of each month instead of the first Friday, so that members may attend the Home Department if they wish.

In response to a communication relative to the community picnic parade May 10 it was voted to enter a decorated car. It was also voted to close the year officially with a family picnic at 7 p. m. June 20 in Bidwell Park. Mrs. Varnes presided during the latter part of the meeting and urged all to plan for the club picnic.
