WHAT THEN?

"When the great plants of our cities
 Have turned out their last finished work
 When our merchants have sold their last yard of silk,
 And dismissed the last tired clerk;
 When our banks have raked in their last dollar
 And paid the last dividend;
 When the Judge of the earth says,
 "Close for the night,"
 And asks for a balance -- What Then?

When the choir has sung its last anthem,
 And the preacher has made his last prayer:
 When the people have heard their last sermon
 And the sound has died on the air:
 When the Bible lies closed on the altar
 And the pews are all empty of men
 And each one stands facing his record-
 And the great Book is opened -- What Then?

When the actors have played their last drama,
 And the mimic has made his last fun,
 When the film has flashed its last picture,
 And the billboard displayed its last run;
 When the crowds seeking pleasure have vanished,
 And gone out in the darkness again -
 When the trumpet of ages is sounded,
 And we stand up before Him -- What Then?

When the bugle's call sings into silence
 And the long, marching, columns stand still
 When the captain repeats his last orders,
 And they've captured the last fort and hill,
 And the flag has been hauled from the masthead,
 And the wounded afield checked in
 AND A WORLD THAT REJECTED ITS SAVIOUR
 IS ASKED FOR A REASON -- WHAT THEN?"

Hour by Hour

God broke our years to hours and days,
That hour by hour, and day by day,
Just going on a little way,
We might be able all along
To keep quite strong.
Should all the weight of life
Be laid across our shoulders, and the future, rife
With woe and struggle, meet us face to face
At just one place, we could not go.
Our feet would stop, and so
God lays a little on us every day,
And never, I believe, in all the way,
Will burdens bear so deep,
Or pathways lie so steep,
But we can go, if, by God's power,
We only bear the burden of the hour.

— George Kringle.

UNLESS we become vitally connected with God, we can never resist the unhallowed effects of self-love, self-indulgence, and temptation to sin. We may leave off many bad habits; for the time we may part company with Satan; but without a vital connection with God, through the surrender of ourselves to Him moment by moment, we shall be overcome. Without a personal acquaintance with Christ, and a continual communion, we are at the mercy of the enemy, and shall do his bidding in the end. — "The Desire of Ages," p. 324.

THE BATTLEFIELD

THERE is an unseen battlefield
In every human breast,
Where two opposing forces meet,
And where they seldom rest.

That field is veiled from mortal sight,
'Tis only seen by One,
Who knows alone where victory lies
When each day's fight is done.

— Selected.

If one who daily communes with God errs from the path, if he turns a moment from looking steadfastly unto Jesus, it is not because he sins wilfully; for when he sees his mistake, he turns again, and fastens his eyes upon Jesus, and the fact that he has erred does not make him less dear to the heart of God. He knows that he has communion with the Saviour; and when reproved for his mistake in some matter of judgment, he does not walk sullenly, and complain of God, but turns the mistake into victory. — Review and Herald, May 12, 1896.
